PETERBOROUGH 1908

50 Cowgate, City Centre,
Peterborough PE1 1NA
///Stack.River.Neck

Our first project for Nathan was the seven metre high artwork inspired by a historic photograph that captures Cowgate at the turn of the 20th century. Nathan asked fine artist Tony Nero for support in trying to capture its true elegance. It can be found on the side of Head2Head Barbershop in Cowgate and is a colourful celebration of the street's history.

COWGATE COWS

32 Cowgate, Rivergate,
Rivergate, Peterborough PE1 1NA
///Hood.Flesh.Laws

We asked Nathan to brighten up the former Post Office building on Cowgate and gave him full artistic licence! He came with up with a play on words - 'Cow' gate - and painted a quirky painting of two cows, which we absolutely love.

THE BEATLES

Unit 7-9 The Hereward Cross Shopping
Centre, Broadway, Peterborough PE1 1TA
///Alien.Orbit.Clubs

Commissioned by us, Tony and Nathan paid tribute to The Beatles and their visit to the city in the 1960s.

The brief was to reproduce the iconic Abbey Road album cover and we chose the crossing at the side of Poundland in Hereward Cross to mark this historic moment.

WALTER CORNELIUS

62 Bridge Street,
Peterborough PE1 1DT
///Dates.Went.Never

With Peterborough Lido celebrating its 90th birthday, we wanted to pay tribute to one of its lifeguards from back in the day. The mural of Walter Cornelius offers a representation of Peterborough's 'strongman'. Situated behind the former TK Maxx building, the mural depicts the many stunts of our late local legend.

HELLO MY BEAUTIFUL PEOPLE

30 Cromwell Rd, Peterborough PE1 2AE
///Amused.Defend.Obey

Described by Nathan as an emotional project, Hello My Beautiful People featuring motivational speaker Atiq Rehman, was Nathan's first largescale wall painting in the city funded, by Arts Council England. This powerful project on Bright Street can be seen from the railway station, measuring 30 feet high and 82 feet wide.

PRIESTGATE

Priestgate
Peterborough PE1 1JL
///Slice.Glad.Serve

We teamed up again with Tony and Nathan to commission this largescale mural that can be found a few paces down from Peterborough Museum and Art Gallery. It was inspired by Wilfrid René Wood's original depiction of Priestgate in the 20th Century.

A MESSAGE OF HOPE

60 Westgate, Peterborough PE1 1RG
///Early.Cards.Shine

This painting of a young child sat opposite a snowdrop is a symbol of positivity, a reminder that there is always hope.

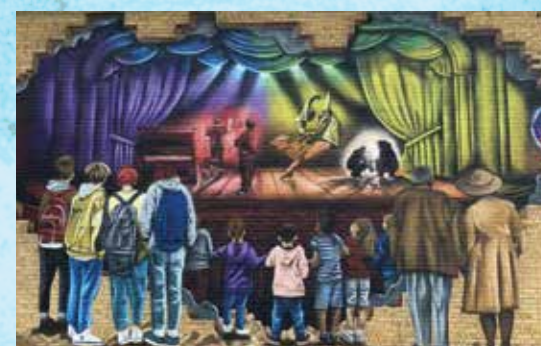

Nathan battled with the weather to get the piece finished but the result is an evocative image, that gives the empty wall space on the side of Megabite takeaway a splash of colour. Funded by Arts Council England.

ART IS NOT WHAT YOU SEE

Embankment Road, Peterborough PE1 1EF
///Hiking.Glove.Famous

This commission by the Key Theatre brings life to the previously graffitied blank wall at the back of the building. This piece depicts an inquisitive crowd watching performers at work on a lit stage.

STARMAN - DAVID BOWIE

Wentworth Street, Peterborough PE1 1DH
///View.Shakes.Tiles

We commissioned Nathan and Tony to paint David Bowie, which pays tribute to his only performance in Peterborough, at the Palais on Wentworth Street on 10th March 1966, when he and his band The Buzz played for 25p a ticket. The mural is painted on the original wall at the Palais - now a carpark - which was one of Peterborough's live music venues during the 1960s; welcoming acts including The Who, The Kinks, The Hollies and Manfred Mann.

STREET ARTS HIRE
the artists...

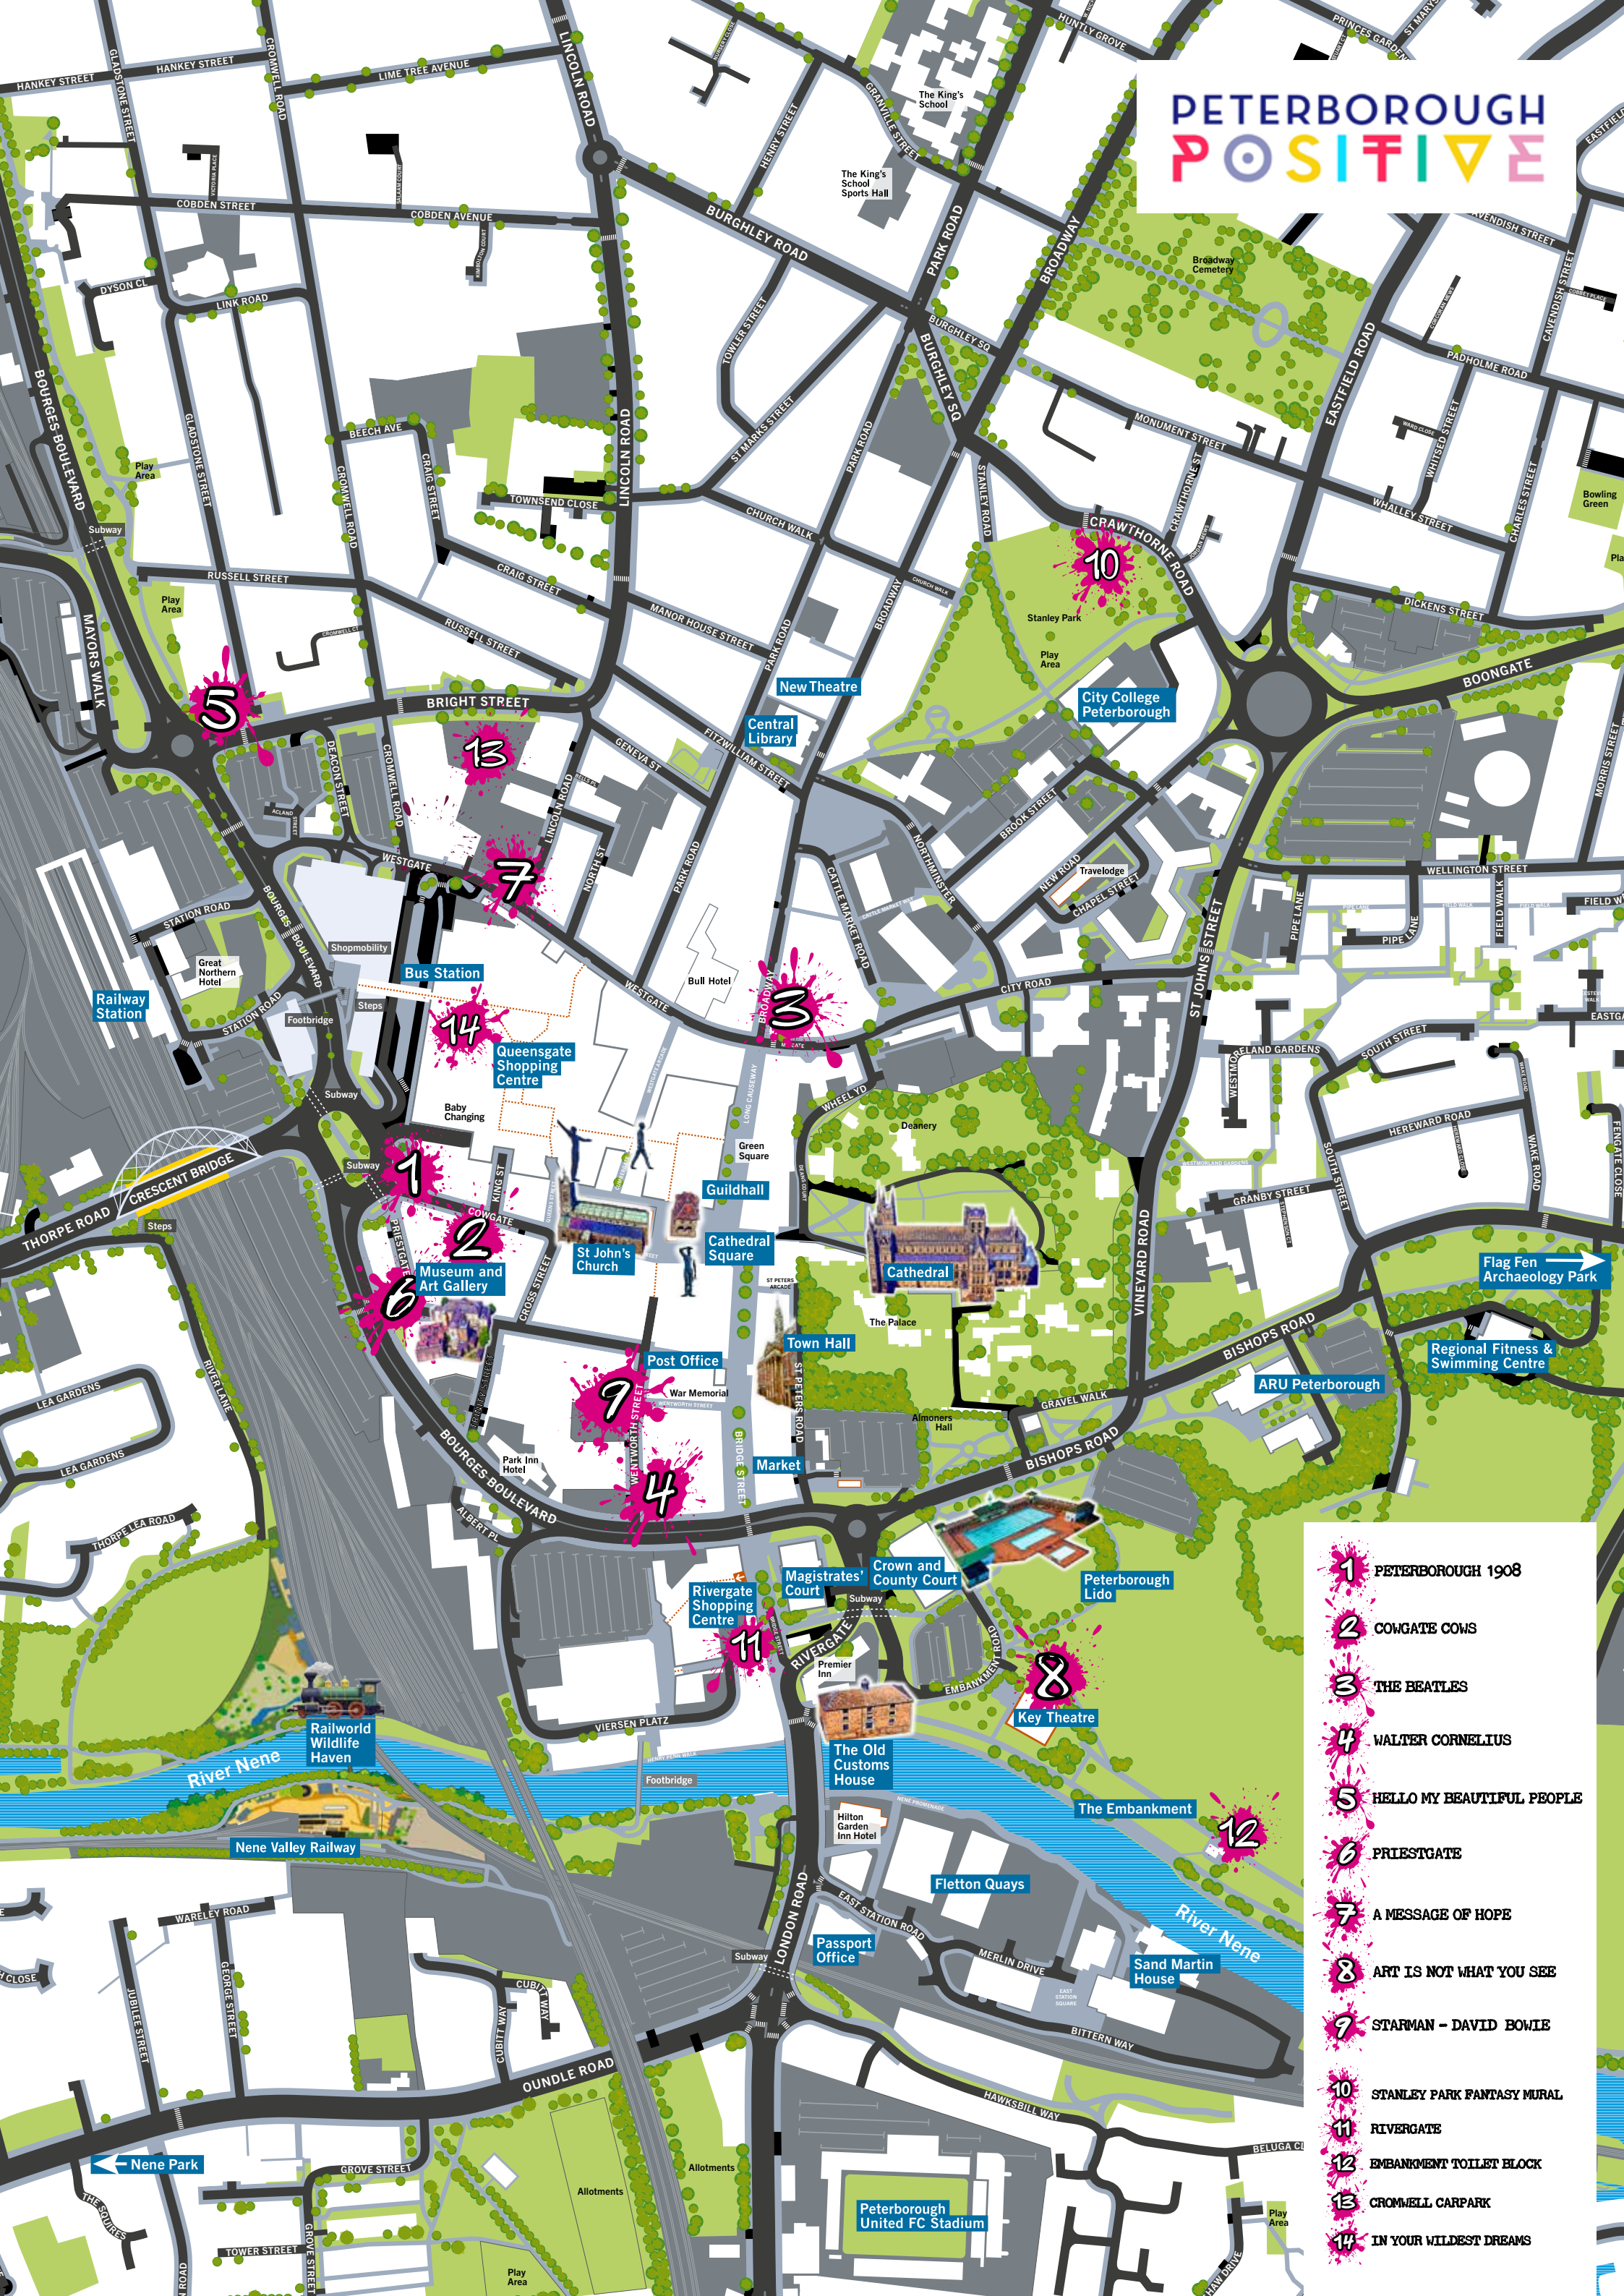

The works of viral street artist Nathan Murdoch and his team Tony Nero, Stuart Payne and other artists can be found across Peterborough city centre and beyond, driving his mission to "make people feel good."

A proud local, Nathan turned his passion for street art into a career, transforming spaces across the city into vibrant landmarks that celebrate its history, culture, and community spirit. His message is clear... art can 'inspire change'... and his internationally recognised work of ten pays homage to Peterborough's rich cultural history.

This map is a celebration of Street Arts Hire work and reflects our shared ambition to help make Peterborough a more vibrant and inspiring place for all. More of Tony's work was exhibited at Peterborough Museum & Art Gallery until January 2026, followed by Nathan from February 2026.
